STUDENT DISCIPLINE: EXPULSION AND EXCLUSION

1. The administration and the Board shall follow the Minnesota Pupil Fair Dismissal Act when considering the expulsion or exclusion of a student.
2. Only the Board shall have the authority to expel or exclude a student from school. The Superintendent shall, however, develop procedures to initiate, on the Board's behalf, the expulsion or exclusion of a student.
3. When a student has been proposed for expulsion, the school administrator must arrange for the provision of homebound or other appropriate alternative educational services for the student until a decision on the proposed expulsion has been finalized by the Board.
