Sneak peek at next week

Reading: In Reading next week we will be talking about how characters feels in the text, what the problem is in a text, and what the setting is.

Phonics: Next week in Phonics we will be working on the word wall words: if, a, and day. We will write, make, and read those words. We will also be practicing using sound boxes and saying the individual sounds in words. We will work with a partner.

Writing: Next week we will be writing our opinion about the Eric Carle text we have been reading. He has a lot of books to explore and discover! We will be adding the word 'because' to our writing to explain why we feel the way we do about the text.

Math: Next week we will be placing items in order and using ordinal numbers up to 10 to describe the position.
