

What will Fifth Graders Learn this year?

designed by vexels

Library Skills

I can find books that are interesting to me

I can find a book in the library using the library catalog and call numbers

I can check my library account to find out how many books I have checked out

I can find information and books written by and about people who see the world in different ways

I can explore my own interests using library resources

I can access LibraryGo electronic resources (

I can find the everybody/easy books as well as know where to find both nonfiction and fiction books

Reading

I can find new information about my own interests through reading.

I can find books that are interesting to me.

I can read stories about people who look like me and who are different from me

I can ask and answer questions about books I've read.

I can ask and answer questions about books that were read to me.

I can read different kind of books (Key concepts: genres, print/digital)

Creative Inquiry

- I can solve problems using the inquiry process/design cycle
- I can ask my own questions about my world
- I can share my creations with an audience
- I can give and receive constructive feedback
- I can use materials to create something new
- I can try something new that is hard and think outside the box
- I can be willing to try something new, and if I fail I will try over and over again
- I can work with others to explore and create new solutions

Research

- I can pick a meaningful topic to learn about
- I can write what I think I know
- I can use print and digital resources to find information I need
- I can record what I learn by taking notes
- I can share what I learned
- I can reflect on what and how I learned and find at least one way I can do better next time
- I can give credit to cite my sources.