Dayton’s Bluff Families!!

We’d love to see your collections in our media center...
  ● To learn more about your interests
  ● To highlight your family
  ● To spark curiosity

A collection can be many things:

Sign up around a holiday or special time of year and share your collection for a week or two. Please print out the following form (or write a permission slip) and send it with your child before sending in any items:

I, _______________________________ am willing to have our family collection of
__________________________________________________________________

displayed in the Dayton’s Bluff Media Center. While the case is not locked, the open part of the case is against a wall so the items will be relatively protected. I will not hold the media center responsible for any loss or damage. To help students learn new things, I would like our collection to be displayed during the following dates if possible: _________________ and would like books about __________________ to be displayed with it.

Name of child or children: