Dear Parents and Students,

The College Board has significantly changed the registration procedures for AP Exam Registration. Please read all information carefully.

Registration for the Advanced Placement (AP) May 2020 Examinations at Central will continue through November 12, 2019. Students taking AP classes are expected to register for AP Exams.

Students will register for May 2020 AP Exams using their individual College Board Account. Students will need to create an individual College Board Account if they do not already have one. Students should avoid creating multiple College Board Accounts.

Students will need a "Join Code" for each AP Subject Exam they plan to take in May 2020. There are Class Section Join Codes and Exam Only Join Codes.

Class Section Join Code. Students currently in an AP Class at Central will get a "Class Section Join Code" from their Teacher. Students will then join the Class Section in their College Board Account. Once a student has "joined" the Class Section, they can choose whether or not to take that exam. Taking the exam is the default option in Class Section registration. Students will register for these AP exams in their particular AP Classes.

AP does not require students to take an AP Class in order to take an AP Exam. We often have Central students that prepare on their own to take an AP Exam, or students that are in an IB Class in the Subject Area that want to take the AP Exam.

Students will need an “Exam Only Join Code” in the following circumstances:
   a. They prepared for the AP Subject Exam on their own.
   b. They took the AP Class for an AP Subject Exam in a previous school year.
   c. They are in an IB Class in the Subject Area and want to take the AP Exam.
   d. They are not a current student at Central.

Exam Only Join Codes will be emailed to students that complete the Pre-registration Form on the Central website and indicate AP Exam Only for that AP Subject Exam.
May 2020 AP EXAM REGISTRATION STEPS:

1. Students will need an individual College Board Account online to register for any May 2020 AP Exams. https://www.collegeboard.org

2. All Students planning to take any AP Exam in May 2020 must complete the Pre-Registration Form - AP Testing found on the Central High School Website.

3. Students currently enrolled in an AP Class at Central will register for that particular AP Subject Exam in their AP Class using Class Section Join Codes provided by their Teacher.

4. Students that want to take an AP Subject Exam without current enrollment in an AP Class at Central will need an Exam Only Join Code to register for that AP Subject Exam. Exam Only Join Codes are specific to each AP Subject Exam.
   a. Students must complete the Pre-registration Form - AP Testing on the Central website.
   b. Exam Only Join Code will then be emailed to students that select AP Exam Only for a particular AP Subject Exam on their Pre-registration Form.
   c. Students will then use the Exam Only Join Code to register for that AP Exam through their College Board account.

5. Deadline to register for May 2020 AP Exams at Central is midnight 11/12/19. Late registration or registration changes are subject to $40 penalty by the College Board.

   - No fee is required to register for May 2020 AP Exams.
   - Students who have conflicts with IB Exams will be offered an alternate date for AP testing. The IB/AP office will notify such students accordingly.
   - If students do well on their exams, college credit may be awarded. For information on college graduation credit or advanced standing please visit www.collegeboard.com or go to individual college websites.
   - Deadline to apply for testing accommodations is January 8, 2020. Students requesting special testing accommodations must indicate this on the Pre-registration Form, and on their College Board Account. Contact Kimberly Totushek, the SSD Coordinator to complete the application for testing accommodations. kimberly.totushek@spps.org

Please contact the AP Coordinator, Robb Lageson with any questions or concerns. robb.lageson@spps.org
