Sadness blanketed the nation on December 14 as the tragic events at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Conn., were made known. At a memorial service held to honor the 26 victims and support the families and community, President Obama spoke, “As a community, you’ve inspired us, Newtown. In the face of indescribable violence, in the face of unconscionable evil, you’ve looked out for each other, and you’ve cared for one another, and you’ve loved one another. This is how Newtown will be remembered.”
The 86-year-old Queen of England celebrated 60 years as reigning monarch during a 4-day Diamond Jubilee. The festivities drew a crowd of more than 1 million people. Other celebratory events happened throughout the year including national and overseas visits and several garden parties.

The Affordable Care Act was deemed constitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court's 5-4 vote. The government plans to move forward with reforms that are intended to provide health care coverage for all people.

Several countries within the European Union continued to undergo economic difficulties. In September, the European Central Bank lowered interest rates and agreed to offer accessible loans to encourage money flow across European banks.

The world's biggest social networking site went public at $38 per share. Since Facebook's creation it has expanded to over 1 billion users.

Austrian daredevil Felix Baumgartner broke 3 records: the speed of sound, highest free fall without a parachute and highest platform exit in a skydive over the New Mexico desert. His free-falling plunge started 24 miles above Earth; at one point, he reached over 830 mph.

Both the Senate and House of Representatives approved a bipartisan bill to avert the "fiscal cliff." The bill continued tax cuts to individuals making less than $400,000 and couples earning less than $450,000 per year. The bill also prolonged unemployment benefits.

The Census Bureau announced that for the first time in U.S. history, minorities made up the majority of births. Minority births comprised 50.4% of the population which revealed the increase of racial diversity within the country.

In the country's first free election, Islamist candidate Mohamed Morsi declared victory with a 51.7% vote 16 months after Egypt's political uprising.

Hurricane Sandy swept the eastern U.S. coast with destruction stretching from the Carolinas to Connecticut. It was the largest Atlantic tropical storm on record and caused over 100 deaths and $30-50 billion in damages. Homes were destroyed and millions of people were left without power for weeks.
Korean pop sensation Park Jae-sang, also known as Psy, became an overnight sensation after he released his song and music video "Gangnam Style." The YouTube video received millions of views per day and became the most watched YouTube video ever. People around the world mimicked his catchy dance moves.

Hostess, the 82-year-old company known for Twinkies and Wonder bread, filed for bankruptcy after a national strike by its bakers union impacted production and added to decreasing sales. The company closure will result in over 18,000 lost jobs.

The famous blue gingham dress that Dorothy wore in the The Wizard of Oz sold at auction for $480,000 to an unknown buyer. The film was made in 1939 and several of its relics sold for high prices in various auctions, including the legendary red ruby slippers.

London's St. James Palace announced Duchess Kate Middleton and Prince William are expecting their first child. The baby will be the Queen's third great-grandchild and is in line as an heir to the throne.

The U.S. Consulate in Benghazi, Libya, was attacked on Sept. 11, taking the lives of Ambassador Chris Stevens and 3 other Americans. Initially the U.S. government did not know what instigated the attack, but it was later categorized as a terrorist incident.
The 20th anniversary of text messaging occurred in 2012. The first text was sent by a computer and read "Merry Christmas." Over the next few years, commercial texting became available and continued to grow exponentially.

More than 8.5 trillion texts were sent in 2012.

It took Japan's Kazuhiro Watanabe 15 years to grow his hair and claim the Guinness World Record for tallest mohawk. The mohawk stands 3 ft. 8.6 in., and requires 3 cans of hairspray and 1 can of gel to keep it upright.

Thousands of lives were lost and nearly a million displaced during the escalated crisis in Syria. An uprising between President Bashar al-Assad's government and rebels fighting his autocratic rule caused violence across the nation and pressure for the UN to intervene.

Within the first 24 hours of release, Apple reported 2 million orders for its iPhone 5. This record doubled the reported pre-orders for the previous iPhone 4S. Though most phones were delivered quickly, some purchasers had to wait a few weeks due to high demand.

The first privately funded spacecraft mission was completed by SpaceX's Dragon capsule, which carried goods such as clothing, food and equipment to the International Space Station. The launch marked a new era for American space exploration.
A study published in Science Translational Medicine announced a potential vaccine to help smokers kick the habit. The vaccine pumps antibodies from the kidneys through the bloodstream to halt nicotine's addictive qualities before it reaches the brain. Though it has only been tested on mice, scientists are hopeful it could also work for humans.

A study in Current Biology reported that a South Korean elephant named Koshik could speak. The elephant used its trunk and throat to mimic his trainer's speech, and spoke the Korean words for "hello," "no," "good," "sit down" and "lie down."

A rare astronomical event called the Venus transit made it possible for people to see the planet as it orbited around the sun. This occurrence lasted over 6 hours and won't be seen again for 100 years.

Energy conservation and sustainability were hot topics in Washington D.C. Natural gas was one energy source that was highly debated. Twenty-five percent of U.S. energy comes from natural gas because it is cleaner than other energy sources. However, the process of getting natural gas can cause water and air pollution.

A new spider about the size of a silver dollar was found in the Pacific Northwest. The spider was nicknamed "cave robber" for where it lives and its long claws.

Mars rover Curiosity landed on the Red Planet after 8 months of travel for its 98-week mission. Curiosity wasn't the first vehicle to land on Mars, but was NASA's biggest and it contained the most research tools to uncover signs of any previous life on Mars.
Higgs particle

Physicists discovered the Higgs boson, a small particle that carries mass between other particles. The find was monumental since scientists were never able to verify its existence.

Sky Green Farms developed the first vertical, commercial-scale vegetable farm in Singapore. Vertical farms are pyramid-like structures made of metal with many levels containing trays of vegetables. The vertical farms are perfect for areas such as Singapore, where real estate is limited and typical farming practices take up too much space.

Tastier tomatoes

Scientists determined the entire genome sequence of the tomato, which revealed additional information about the fruit's genetic structure. Researchers can learn how the species adapted over time and how to produce more tasty and nutritious varieties.

Spray-on power

A team of mechanical engineers published research on their latest invention: spray-on, rechargeable batteries. They broke down the battery components and transformed them into liquid—a discovery that may eventually lead to spray-on batteries for tiles, glass, steel and cars.

Solar-powered plane

At 43.5 mph, Solar Impulse made its historic solar-powered intercontinental flight between Switzerland and Morocco, with a stop in Spain. The plane's 12,000 solar cells across its wingspan captured the sun's energy to run its motors and recharge the battery. The mission demonstrated the potential for pollution-free air travel.

Coral finding in tropical reefs

A new coral species was discovered in the western part of the Coral Triangle. The coral lives on cave ceilings and is unique because it lacks the bacteria that other coral need to survive. It can tolerate low light levels in deep waters and has small polyp sizes, which cause it to grow slowly.

Diamond detergent

A U.K. team of researchers discovered that very small pieces of carbon called nanodiamonds can help detergents more effectively clean clothing with cold water. These findings were part of the "Cold Water Cleaning Initiative" that aimed to find energy savings by replacing hot water with cold for household chores.
Brookstone stores offered a virtual keyboard (manufactured by CTX Virtual Technologies) to consumers. It is the smallest and most affordable ($99 each) virtual keyboard of its kind. The keyboard image is projected via laser from a small key chain. Optical sensors track the user's finger movements and Bluetooth technology connects it back to the wireless device.

Robot plays rock, paper, scissors

Physicists at the University of Tokyo created a robot that can play rock, paper, scissors and win 100% of the time against humans. The robot was programmed with a high-speed camera that senses human wrist motion in 1 millisecond and determines which move the player will choose before the motion is even made. Someday, similar technology might be used in assembly line work and even in hospitals.

The Egg & I

French engineer Luc Fusaro developed customized shoes to enhance athletic performance. First, a digital model is made of the athlete's foot. Then, using special powder with a 3-D printing technique, the shoes are built for a perfect fit. The shoes can improve speed performance up to 3.5%.

Built for Speed

Digital Pills

A new egg-shaped car called “Eggasus” joined the eco-friendly vehicle market. The 3-wheel car gives off zero emissions and is ideal for compact, urban spaces. “Eggasus” costs $5,000 and fits one person inside. It can reach 25 mph and travel a distance of about 50 miles.

The First Digital Pill

The first digital pill was approved by the FDA. The digital chip, the size of a grain of sand, is implanted in a pill that is taken at the same time as the patient's medication. The chip sends an electric signal to a patch worn on the person's skin which sends the information to medical professionals for monitoring.

Engineered Copter

Students at the University of Maryland Clark School of Engineering set a new (unofficial) record for flight time in the Gamma II, a helicopter powered by foot pedals and a hand crank. The machine weighed nearly 75 lbs. and stayed in the air for about 65 seconds at 9 ft. off the ground.
A1 Concepts, a Netherlands-based company, plans to bring its pizza vending machine technology called “Let’s Pizza” to the U.S. The machine takes 2.5 minutes to make the pizza and another minute to bake it. The 11-inch pizza sells for $5.95.

A team of university students from the Ukraine won the coveted Software Design category in Microsoft’s 2012 Imagine Cup. The group created Enable Talk gloves that sense movement and translate it to audible speech. The inventors’ goal was to help users more easily communicate with people who don’t know sign language.

The ICEDot Crash Sensor was introduced to the market specifically for people who participate in high-risk sports. A GPS sensor is attached to the athlete’s helmet. If it detects a high-impact fall, a 30-second countdown begins. The person must stop the countdown, or Bluetooth technology sends a message with GPS coordinates to the user’s emergency contacts.

Apple’s iPad mini, a smaller version of the iPad, launched to compete with small tablets produced by Google and Amazon. The new device has a 7.9 in. screen, is 7.2 mm. thick and weighs .68 lbs.

A year-long study with “talking cars” was conducted by the Department of Transportation. Nearly 3,000 cars were equipped with wireless transmitters that sent out the car’s location, speed and direction. With this data, the car warned the driver of potential dangers to prevent collisions.

GroundWave Shadow Trainers, a shoe prototype that helps teach people how to dance was designed by Tom Sykes from Loughborough University. Sensors in the shoes are connected to a smartphone app, which tracks the user’s movement and provides feedback. The shoes were created to teach dance and encourage physical activity for kids.

Google Glass was named one of TIME magazine’s “Best Inventions of the Year.” The glasses look ordinary, but when wearers look up and to the right they’ll notice the difference. The glasses have a built-in computer that allows users to access Google tools; it also contains an earpiece and speaker. Google plans to release the glasses in 2014 for $1,500 each.
Andy Murray and Serena Williams both won the Singles titles at the US Open. Murray defeated Novak Djokovic in set 5, making it his 1st Grand Slam title. Serena Williams continued to dominate by beating Victoria Azarenka, and earned her 15th Grand Slam title and 4th US Open championship win.

Dario Franchitti placed first at the Indy 500 to earn his 3rd title. Franchitti drove for his teammate and former race winner Dan Wheldon, who passed away in a crash last year. He wore white glasses afterward in honor of Wheldon.

Four different players won each of this year’s major golf championships. Bubba Watson finished 10 under and made both holes in a sudden-death play-off to win the Masters Tournament. The U.S. Open Championship went to Webb Simpson, who earned his 1st major title 1 stroke ahead of his closest opponents. Ernie Els’ win in the Open Championship made Els the 8th player to win a major in 3 different decades. Rory McIlroy won the PGA Championship by a PGA-record 8 strokes.

Bradley Wiggins of Britain celebrated a win in the Tour de France and was the first Brit to ever win the race. Wiggins beat out 2nd place finisher, and Team Sky teammate Chris Froome, by more than a 3-minute margin.

The Indiana Fever won their first WNBA championship against the Minnesota Lynx in Game 4 with a final score of 87-78. Tamika Catchings of the Fever scored 25 points in the final game and earned the MVP award.

Missy Franklin won the hearts of many with her big smile and strong strokes at the games. She won gold in the 100-meter and 200-meter backstroke, as well as a record-setting gold and bronze in the women’s relays.

Usain Bolt made history by winning the 100, 200 and 4x100m relay events in back-to-back Olympic games, holding onto his World’s Fastest Man title.

Swimmer Michael Phelps officially earned the title of most decorated Olympian with 22 career medals, 18 of which were gold. Phelps finished his career in London with 4 gold and 2 silver medals.

The women’s U.S. Gymnastics team beat Russia to win gold in an exciting finish. Gymnast Gabby Douglas also won gold in the Individual All-Around.
ravens fly to victory

The Baltimore Ravens and San Francisco 49ers faced off in Super Bowl XLVII, which was held in New Orleans. The Ravens took a 22 point lead when the stadium's power went out for nearly half an hour. Once the power returned, the 49ers tried to close the gap in a second-half surge but the Ravens held on for a 34-31 victory. The Ravens quarterback, Joe Flacco, earned the MVP award.

to the extreme

Los Angeles hosted the Summer X Games with 18 events held over a 4-day period for BMX, Motocross, Rally Car Racing and Skateboard. Bob Burnquist won his 22nd career medal at the Games and defended his title in the Skateboard Big Air. Vicki Golden won gold in the Motocross for the second year in a row, following an injury earlier in the year.

giant win

The San Francisco Giants won the World Series in just 4 games in the best-of-seven series against the Detroit Tigers. The win marked the Giants' 2nd World Series title in 3 years, the team's 7th title in the franchise's 129-year history.
